Sta-Dri brand vinyl, latex and nitrile examination gloves are manufactured in accordance with ISO 9000 quality assurance certification. At various stages of the manufacturing process, assorted sampling and quality control tests (according to ISO 2859-1 and MIL-STD-105E/BS6001) are routinely carried out to monitor operation and product quality. Along with the ISO 9000 Quality System the ASTM, EN-455, EN-374 and E-388 standards have been implemented. All products are packaged and labeled with appropriate precautionary statements, UPC numbers and lot numbers for traceability. Gloves are inspected and tested to ensure AQL compliance.
